

Stern Brothers

have now in stock their entire Fall and Winter Importations of High Class Novelties in

Silks

Gold and Silver
Filles and Satins, Arabesque and
Royal Brocades,
Plain and Shepherd's Check Floire Velours,
Self Color
Brocaded Satins
For Evening Wear,
Rich Novelty Velvets.

Dress Goods

Matelasse Effects,
Etamines,
Canvas Hivernal, Zibelines,
Etoffe Ficelle,
Cheviot Scabreux, Broadcloths
in all the Latest Shades
For Costumes.

West Twenty-Third St.

Stern Bros.

are showing in their Millinery Depts
complete assortments of

Ostrich Tips
and Plumes.

Wings,
Paradise and Fancy Feathers

Steel and Jet Ornaments
the latest novelties in

Ribbons

and the newest shapes in

Untrimmed Hats
West 23d St.

WESTCHESTER COUNTY.

PRIZES FOR THE BABIES.
YOUNGSTERS WERE THE FEATURE OF THE LAST DAY OF THE WESTCHESTER FAIR.

The last day of the Westchester County Fair was held yesterday. The attendance was good, in spite of the threatening weather. The judges had completed making the awards in their respective departments, and exhibits were gradually withdrawn in the course of the day. The various attractions of the week were presented, as usual, however, and in every way the fair came to a satisfactory close.

The baby show, which took place at 12 o'clock at the grandstand, attracted a large crowd of interested women. There were four classes, as follows: Girls, over one year and under two, and under one year; boys, over one year and under two, and under one year. The prizes were awarded as follows: Girl, over one year and under two, Florence Low, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Low, Lexington, prize, a gold chain and locket; girl, under one year, Mildred Ober, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Ober, White Plains, prize, a gold chain and locket; boy, over one year and under two, Henry R. Raymond, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry R. Raymond, Woodlawn, prize, a silver mug; boy, under one year, Edward Walter Schirmer, son of Mr. and Mrs. Schirmer, of Mount Vernon, prize, a silver mug. There were thirty-six babies entered in the contest, and those that did not secure prizes received souvenir gold rings from President Tompkins on behalf of the society. The judges were Mrs. George E. Quinby, of White Plains, and Mrs. Aaron T. Tygart and Mrs. Robert H. Bullock, of Albany.

TARRYTOWN.

The 7 o'clock trip of the ferryboat Rockland between here and Nyack will be discontinued after tomorrow. The last trip will now be at 6:30 p. m. The regular meeting of the Ward B. Burnett Post, No. 496 G. A. R., will take place on Tuesday evening next.

The Town Board of Greenburgh have unanimously agreed not to use the Meyers ballot machine at the coming election and will vote with ballots instead.

Father Stone of the Order of Carmelites will celebrate mass this morning in the Cleveland House, in Broadway. He expects to erect a church here soon. The Rev. Dr. Gallaudet, who has charge of the deaf mute work in the Episcopal Church of America, will be in the evening service in St. Mark's Church, in Broadway this evening, and will interpret to the deaf mute present. He will also make an address.

MOUNT KISCO.

The Rev. Charles H. McAnney being too ill to resume his duties, the communion service this morning at the Mount Kisco Methodist Episcopal Church will be in charge of the Rev. Dr. Parker. This evening the Rev. Mr. Fossenden, of the Presbyterian Church, will occupy Mr. McAnney's pulpit, and the services will be united.

The first of the regular monthly meetings of the "Y Society" for the season will be held on Tuesday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock, at the home of Mrs. Charles F. Chapman, in Haver Ave.

CROTON-ON-HUDSON.

Columbian Hotel and Ladder Company will give a ball at the Kitchawan next Tuesday evening. On Friday evening next there will be a harvest entertainment in the lecture room of the Asbury Methodist Episcopal Church under the auspices of the Epworth League. There will be a supper, and fancy articles for sale, and an entertaining program of pantomimes in the evening.

Mrs. E. R. Ames Hiss will lead the Epworth League meeting this evening at 8:30 o'clock at the Asbury Methodist Episcopal Church. Subject, "The Outer Circle."

PEEKSKILL.

Royal E. Taylor, for twelve years the Peekskill agent of the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals, has resigned his office. His successor has not been appointed.

The Ladies' Musical Club met with Miss Johnson at her home in Nelson Ave. yesterday afternoon. After the business meeting there was a musical.

Stern Bros.

are now exhibiting
Their Latest
Importations

Ladies' Paris
Costumes

and Wraps
Also a choice collection of

Gowns
and

Tailor-made
Suits

Their Own Production which they offer at

Very Attractive Prices.

West 23d St.

o'clock. In the First Baptist Church, the pastor, the Rev. Dr. H. C. T. Townley, will occupy the pulpit both morning and evening. In the Reformed Church there will be the celebration of the Lord's Supper in the morning, and in the evening the pastor, the Rev. Henry De Vries, will preach on the topic, "Why Do I Believe in the Atonement?" The usual services at Ansonville and in the Christian Reformed Church will be held. At the Church of the Assumption there will be the usual masses at 8, 9 and 10:30 a. m. and vespers at 7:30 p. m. At St. Peter's Church the pastor, the Rev. William Fisher Lewis, will hold the usual services at 10:30 a. m. and 7:30 p. m.

WHITE PLAINS.
The second anniversary of the Gospel Mission will be celebrated in the Gospel Mission rooms, Lexington and Railroad Aves., to-day, as follows: Love feast at 9:30 a. m., experience and testimony meeting at 1:30 and 7:30 p. m.

A game of football has been arranged between the High School eleven and the Chappaqua College eleven, to take place on Saturday, October 10. The Rev. J. J. Gorham will preach on "Spirituality at the 1896 o'clock service today in the First Baptist Church, and in the evening at 7:30 on 'The Reward of Faith.' The above hours will continue through the fall and winter. The Sunday-school will be at 10:30 a. m. and the Young People's Society Christian Endeavor at 6:30 p. m. Charles E. Carleton, manager of the White Plains City, will make an address, and the Bowery Mission League Band will sing and conduct a 'testimony meeting.' The Rev. T. H. Baragwanath, pastor of the Central Methodist Episcopal Church, will deliver a sermon at the evening service on 'The Present Political Crisis—What Shall We Do?' The Rev. Dr. Elias S. Osborn, presiding elder, will preach at the morning service of the 1896 o'clock service, of which the Rev. Dr. Fossenden, of the Presbyterian Church, will occupy Mr. McAnney's pulpit, and the services will be united.

The Rev. Charles H. McAnney being too ill to resume his duties, the communion service this morning at the Mount Kisco Methodist Episcopal Church will be in charge of the Rev. Dr. Parker. This evening the Rev. Mr. Fossenden, of the Presbyterian Church, will occupy Mr. McAnney's pulpit, and the services will be united.

The first of the regular monthly meetings of the "Y Society" for the season will be held on Tuesday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock, at the home of Mrs. Charles F. Chapman, in Haver Ave.

The Town Board of Greenburgh have unanimously agreed not to use the Meyers ballot machine at the coming election and will vote with ballots instead.

Father Stone of the Order of Carmelites will celebrate mass this morning in the Cleveland House, in Broadway. He expects to erect a church here soon. The Rev. Dr. Gallaudet, who has charge of the deaf mute work in the Episcopal Church of America, will be in the evening service in St. Mark's Church, in Broadway this evening, and will interpret to the deaf mute present. He will also make an address.

The first of the regular monthly meetings of the "Y Society" for the season will be held on Tuesday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock, at the home of Mrs. Charles F. Chapman, in Haver Ave.

The Town Board of Greenburgh have unanimously agreed not to use the Meyers ballot machine at the coming election and will vote with ballots instead.

Father Stone of the Order of Carmelites will celebrate mass this morning in the Cleveland House, in Broadway. He expects to erect a church here soon. The Rev. Dr. Gallaudet, who has charge of the deaf mute work in the Episcopal Church of America, will be in the evening service in St. Mark's Church, in Broadway this evening, and will interpret to the deaf mute present. He will also make an address.

The first of the regular monthly meetings of the "Y Society" for the season will be held on Tuesday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock, at the home of Mrs. Charles F. Chapman, in Haver Ave.

The Town Board of Greenburgh have unanimously agreed not to use the Meyers ballot machine at the coming election and will vote with ballots instead.

Father Stone of the Order of Carmelites will celebrate mass this morning in the Cleveland House, in Broadway. He expects to erect a church here soon. The Rev. Dr. Gallaudet, who has charge of the deaf mute work in the Episcopal Church of America, will be in the evening service in St. Mark's Church, in Broadway this evening, and will interpret to the deaf mute present. He will also make an address.

B. Altman & Co.

18th Street, 19th Street and Sixth Avenue.

FRENCH LINGERIE.

Have now open a specially selected high-class stock of Imported Paris Lingerie, combining the finest Cambrics, Lincens, Silks, Laces and Embroideries.

ON EXHIBITION

To-morrow, Monday, October Fifth, Imported Bridal Trousseau of rare and matchless workmanship and materials, consisting of 68 pieces, at $7,000

Also,
An Infant's Complete Outfit of exquisite handwork, materials and lace, consisting of 163 pieces, at $3,000

FLINT'S FINE FURNITURE

DECORATIVE MINIATURES.

The charming rooms and corners we have created in our showrooms are "pictures in little" of our work as decorators when applied to a whole house.

Delicacy, quaintness, color splendor are all represented. A Louis XVI reception room on our first floor is so exquisitely dainty in detail as to recall the finish of a butterfly's wing under the microscope; while hard by is a lantern-lighted Moorish corner in perfect contrast, aglow with rich, half-barbaric coloring. On our seventh floor an airy Indian room satisfies any picturesque ideal.

Seeing these corners may give you ideas worth coming far to obtain.

"OUT OF THE MAKER"

GEO. C. FLINT CO.

48, 45 and 47 WEST 35TH ST.

NEAR BROADWAY.

FACTORY, 154 AND 156 WEST 10TH STREET.

meeting on Wednesday evening, October 21, at the City Court room, for the purpose of discussing the municipal building project.

The fourth run of the baggies of Quaker Ridge Farm, given by William E. Iselin, started yesterday from Rye. The route was across country, by way of Westchester Ave., to a farm on the Park property, near White Plains. Among those present were William E. Iselin, master of the baggies, and the two hunters and two riders, followed by the guest-list, including Eugene Royall, W. C. Reynold, Arthur Iselin, Louis Halset, D. R. Pratt and others.
A number of tallies and drags filed with ladies followed the hunt.

The McKinley and Hobart Club will hold another rally on next Tuesday evening. John S. Wise, of Virginia, will address the meeting.

The American Yacht Club will remain open until November 1.

THE LARCHMONT'S CLAMBAKE.

INFORMAL ANNOUNCEMENTS OF THE RE-TIREMENT OF COMMODORE GILLIG AND THE CHAIRMAN OF THE REGATTA COMMITTEE PRE-CEDE THE PASSING OF
THE CLAIMS.

The annual clam bake of the Larchmont Yacht Club, held yesterday afternoon under the trees fronting the clubhouse at Larchmont Manor, was notable for some other things besides the excellence of the good things prepared by that veteran open air chef, Archie Stalker. In the first place, the club did not lack the hungry. In the second place, the tables that had been spread under the shadow of the trees until nearly 3 o'clock, and the members began to gather at noon for gossip and good-fellowship.

One of the first items of information that leaked out and excited comment was the decision of Commodore H. M. Gillig not to be a candidate for re-election at the annual meeting, which will be held in February. He is contemplating a long European trip, and will in all probability be absent nearly all of next season. There is an unwritten law in the Larchmont organization that there shall be no third-term commodores, yet if Mr. Gillig desired a re-election no one questions his popularity sufficiently to preclude his defeat at the polls. However, he has made up his mind, and that ends the discussion. The members were at a loss even to guess at the possibilities of the coming canvass for a successor to Commodore Gillig. The name of Vice-Commodore Clarence A. Postley was mentioned, and Commodore H. M. Gillig was using the name of a third-term commodore, yet if Mr. Gillig desired a re-election no one questions his popularity sufficiently to preclude his defeat at the polls. However,
he has made up his mind, and that ends the discussion. The members were at a loss even to guess
at the possibilities of the coming canvass for a successor to Commodore Gillig. The name of Vice-
Commodore Clarence A. Postley was mentioned, and Commodore H. M. Gillig was using the name of
a third-term commodore, yet if Mr. Gillig desired a re-election no one questions his popularity sufficiently to preclude his defeat at the polls. However,
he has made up his mind, and that ends the discussion. The members were at a loss even to guess
at the possibilities of the coming canvass for a successor to Commodore Gillig. The name of Vice-
Commodore Clarence A. Postley was mentioned, and Commodore H. M. Gillig was using the name of
a third-term commodore, yet if Mr. Gillig desired a re-election no one questions his popularity sufficiently to preclude his defeat at the polls. However,
he has made up his mind, and that ends the discussion. The members were at a loss even to guess
at the possibilities of the coming canvass for a successor to Commodore Gillig. The name of Vice-
Commodore Clarence A. Postley was mentioned, and Commodore H. M. Gillig was using the name of
a third-term commodore, yet if Mr. Gillig desired a re-election no one questions his popularity sufficiently to preclude his defeat at the polls. However,
he has made up his mind, and that ends the discussion. The members were at a loss even to guess
at the possibilities of the coming canvass for a successor to Commodore Gillig. The name of Vice-
Commodore Clarence A. Postley was mentioned, and Commodore H. M. Gillig was using the name of
a third-term commodore, yet if Mr. Gillig desired a re-election no one questions his popularity sufficiently to preclude his defeat at the polls. However,
he has made up his mind, and that ends the discussion. The members were at a loss even to guess
at the possibilities of the coming canvass for a successor to Commodore Gillig. The name of Vice-
Commodore Clarence A. Postley was mentioned, and Commodore H. M. Gillig was using the name of
a third-term commodore, yet if Mr. Gillig desired a re-election no one questions his popularity sufficiently to preclude his defeat at the polls. However,
he has made up his mind, and that ends the discussion. The members were at a loss even to guess
at the possibilities of the coming canvass for a successor to Commodore Gillig. The name of Vice-
Commodore Clarence A. Postley was mentioned, and Commodore H. M. Gillig was using the name of
a third-term commodore, yet if Mr. Gillig desired a re-election no one questions his popularity sufficiently to preclude his defeat at the polls. However,
he has made up his mind, and that ends the discussion. The members were at a loss even to guess
at the possibilities of the coming canvass for a successor to Commodore Gillig. The name of Vice-
Commodore Clarence A. Postley was mentioned, and Commodore H. M. Gillig was using the name of
a third-term commodore, yet if Mr. Gillig desired a re-election no one questions his popularity sufficiently to preclude his defeat at the polls. However,
he has made up his mind, and that ends the discussion. The members were at a loss even to guess
at the possibilities of the coming canvass for a successor to Commodore Gillig. The name of Vice-
Commodore Clarence A. Postley was mentioned, and Commodore H. M. Gillig was using the name of
a third-term commodore, yet if Mr. Gillig desired a re-election no one questions his popularity sufficiently to preclude his defeat at the polls. However,
he has made up his mind, and that ends the discussion. The members were at a loss even to guess
at the possibilities of the coming canvass for a successor to Commodore Gillig. The name of Vice-
Commodore Clarence A. Postley was mentioned, and Commodore H. M. Gillig was using the name of
a third-term commodore, yet if Mr. Gillig desired a re-election no one questions his popularity sufficiently to preclude his defeat at the polls. However,
he has made up his mind, and that ends the discussion. The members were at a loss even to guess
at the possibilities of the coming canvass for a successor to Commodore Gillig. The name of Vice-
Commodore Clarence A. Postley was mentioned, and Commodore H. M. Gillig was using the name of
a third-term commodore, yet if Mr. Gillig desired a re-election no one questions his popularity sufficiently to preclude his defeat at the polls. However,
he has made up his mind, and that ends the discussion. The members were at a loss even to guess
at the possibilities of the coming canvass for a successor to Commodore Gillig. The name of Vice-
Commodore Clarence A. Postley was mentioned, and Commodore H. M. Gillig was using the name of
a third-term commodore, yet if Mr. Gillig desired a re-election no one questions his popularity sufficiently to preclude his defeat at the polls. However,
he has made up his mind, and that ends the discussion. The members were at a loss even to guess
at the possibilities of the coming canvass for a successor to Commodore Gillig. The name of Vice-
Commodore Clarence A. Postley was mentioned, and Commodore H. M. Gillig was using the name of
a third-term commodore, yet if Mr. Gillig desired a re-election no one questions his popularity sufficiently to preclude his defeat at the polls. However,
he has made up his mind, and that ends the discussion. The members were at a loss even to guess
at the possibilities of the coming canvass for a successor to Commodore Gillig. The name of Vice-
Commodore Clarence A. Postley was mentioned, and Commodore H. M. Gillig was using the name of
a third-term commodore, yet if Mr. Gillig desired a re-election no one questions his popularity sufficiently to preclude his defeat at the polls. However,
he has made up his mind, and that ends the discussion. The members were at a loss even to guess
at the possibilities of the coming canvass for a successor to Commodore Gillig. The name of Vice-
Commodore Clarence A. Postley was mentioned, and Commodore H. M. Gillig was using the name of
a third-term commodore, yet if Mr. Gillig desired a re-election no one questions his popularity sufficiently to preclude his defeat at the polls. However,
he has made up his mind, and that ends the discussion. The members were at a loss even to guess
at the possibilities of the coming canvass for a successor to Commodore Gillig. The name of Vice-
Commodore Clarence A. Postley was mentioned, and Commodore H. M. Gillig was using the name of
a third-term commodore, yet if Mr. Gillig desired a re-election no one questions his popularity sufficiently to preclude his defeat at the polls. However,
he has made up his mind, and that ends the discussion. The members were at a loss even to guess
at the possibilities of the coming canvass for a successor to Commodore Gillig. The name of Vice-
Commodore Clarence A. Postley was mentioned, and Commodore H. M. Gillig was using the name of
a third-term commodore, yet if Mr. Gillig desired a re-election no one questions his popularity sufficiently to preclude his defeat at the polls. However,
he has made up his mind, and that ends the discussion. The members were at a loss even to guess
at the possibilities of the coming canvass for a successor to Commodore Gillig. The name of Vice-
Commodore Clarence A. Postley was mentioned, and Commodore H. M. Gillig was using the name of
a third-term commodore, yet if Mr. Gillig desired a re-election no one questions his popularity sufficiently to preclude his defeat at the polls. However,
he has made up his mind, and that ends the discussion. The members were at a loss even to guess
at the possibilities of the coming canvass for a successor to Commodore Gillig. The name of Vice-
Commodore Clarence A. Postley was mentioned, and Commodore H. M. Gillig was using the name of
a third-term commodore, yet if Mr. Gillig desired a re-election no one questions his popularity sufficiently to preclude his defeat at the polls. However,
he has made up his mind, and that ends the discussion. The members were at a loss even to guess
at the possibilities of the coming canvass for a successor to Commodore Gillig. The name of Vice-
Commodore Clarence A. Postley was mentioned, and Commodore H. M. Gillig was using the name of
a third-term commodore, yet if Mr. Gillig desired a re-election no one questions his popularity sufficiently to preclude his defeat at the polls. However,
he has made up his mind, and that ends the discussion. The members were at a loss even to guess
at the possibilities of the coming canvass for a successor to Commodore Gillig. The name of Vice-
Commodore Clarence A. Postley was mentioned, and Commodore H. M. Gillig was using the name of
a third-term commodore, yet if Mr. Gillig desired a re-election no one questions his popularity sufficiently to preclude his defeat at the polls. However,
he has made up his mind, and that ends the discussion. The members were at a loss even to guess
at the possibilities of the coming canvass for a successor to Commodore Gillig. The name of Vice-
Commodore Clarence A. Postley was mentioned, and Commodore H. M. Gillig was using the name of
a third-term commodore, yet if Mr. Gillig desired a re-election no one questions his popularity sufficiently to preclude his defeat at the polls. However,
he has made up his mind, and that ends the discussion. The members were at a loss even to guess
at the possibilities of the coming canvass for a successor to Commodore Gillig. The name of Vice-
Commodore Clarence A. Postley was mentioned, and Commodore H. M. Gillig was using the name of
a third-term commodore, yet if Mr. Gillig desired a re-election no one questions his popularity sufficiently to preclude his defeat at the polls. However,
he has made up his mind, and that ends the discussion. The members were at a loss even to guess
at the possibilities of the coming canvass for a successor to Commodore Gillig. The name of Vice-
Commodore Clarence A. Postley was mentioned, and Commodore H. M. Gillig was using the name of
a third-term commodore, yet if Mr. Gillig desired a re-election no one questions his popularity sufficiently to preclude his defeat at the polls. However,
he has made up his mind, and that ends the discussion. The members were at a loss even to guess
at the possibilities of the coming canvass for a successor to Commodore Gillig. The name of Vice-
Commodore Clarence A. Postley was mentioned, and Commodore H. M. Gillig was using the name of
a third-term commodore, yet if Mr. Gillig desired a re-election no one questions his popularity sufficiently to preclude his defeat at the polls. However,
he has made up his mind, and that ends the discussion. The members were at a loss even to guess
at the possibilities of the coming canvass for a successor to Commodore Gillig. The name of Vice-
Commodore Clarence A. Postley was mentioned, and Commodore H. M. Gillig was using the name of
a third-term commodore, yet if Mr. Gillig desired a re-election no one questions his popularity sufficiently to preclude his defeat at the polls. However,
he has made up his mind, and that ends the discussion. The members were at a loss even to guess
at the possibilities of the coming canvass for a successor to Commodore Gillig. The name of Vice-
Commodore Clarence A. Postley was mentioned, and Commodore H. M. Gillig was using the name of
a third-term commodore, yet if Mr. Gillig desired a re-election no one questions his popularity sufficiently to preclude his defeat at the polls. However,
he has made up his mind, and that ends the discussion. The members were at a loss even to guess
at the possibilities of the coming canvass for a successor to Commodore Gillig. The name of Vice-
Commodore Clarence A. Postley was mentioned, and Commodore H. M. Gillig was using the name of
a third-term commodore, yet if Mr. Gillig desired a re-election no one questions his popularity sufficiently to preclude his defeat at the polls. However,
he has made up his mind, and that ends the discussion. The members were at a loss even to guess
at the possibilities of the coming canvass for a successor to Commodore Gillig. The name of Vice-
Commodore Clarence A. Postley was mentioned, and Commodore H. M. Gillig was using the name of
a third-term commodore, yet if Mr. Gillig desired a re-election no one questions his popularity sufficiently to preclude his defeat at the polls. However,
he has made up his mind, and that ends the discussion. The members were at a loss even to guess
at the possibilities of the coming canvass for a successor to Commodore Gillig. The name of Vice-
Commodore Clarence A. Postley was mentioned, and Commodore H. M. Gillig was using the name of
a third-term commodore, yet if Mr. Gillig desired a re-election no one questions his popularity sufficiently to preclude his defeat at the polls. However,
he has made up his mind, and that ends the discussion. The members were at a loss even to guess
at the possibilities of the coming canvass for a successor to Commodore Gillig. The name of Vice-
Commodore Clarence A. Postley was mentioned, and Commodore H. M. Gillig was using the name of
a third-term commodore, yet if Mr. Gillig desired a re-election no one questions his popularity sufficiently to preclude his defeat at the polls. However,
he has made up his mind, and that ends the discussion. The members were at a loss even to guess
at the possibilities of the coming canvass for a successor to Commodore Gillig. The name of Vice-
Commodore Clarence A. Postley was mentioned, and Commodore H. M. Gillig was using the name of
a third-term commodore, yet if Mr. Gillig desired a re-election no one questions his popularity sufficiently to preclude his defeat at the polls. However,
he has made up his mind, and that ends the discussion. The members were at a loss even to guess
at the possibilities of the coming canvass for a successor to Commodore Gillig. The name of Vice-
Commodore Clarence A. Postley was mentioned, and Commodore H. M. Gillig was using the name of
a third-term commodore, yet if Mr. Gillig desired a re-election no one questions his popularity sufficiently to preclude his defeat at the polls. However,
he has made up his mind, and that ends the discussion. The members were at a loss even to guess
at the possibilities of the coming canvass for a successor to Commodore Gillig. The name of Vice-
Commodore Clarence A. Postley was mentioned, and Commodore H. M. Gillig was using the name of
a third-term commodore, yet if Mr. Gillig desired a re-election no one questions his popularity sufficiently to preclude his defeat at the polls. However,
he has made up his mind, and that ends the discussion. The members were at a loss even to guess
at the possibilities of the coming canvass for a successor to Commodore Gillig. The name of Vice-
Commodore Clarence A. Postley was mentioned, and Commodore H. M. Gillig was using the name of
a third-term commodore, yet if Mr. Gillig desired a re-election no one questions his popularity sufficiently to preclude his defeat at the polls. However,
he has made up his mind, and that ends the discussion. The members were at a loss even to guess
at the possibilities of the coming canvass for a successor to Commodore Gillig. The name of Vice-
Commodore Clarence A. Postley was mentioned, and Commodore H. M. Gillig was using the name of
a third-term commodore, yet if Mr. Gillig desired a re-election no one questions his popularity sufficiently to preclude his defeat at the polls. However,
he has made up his mind, and that ends the discussion. The members were at a loss even to guess
at the possibilities of the coming canvass for a successor to Commodore Gillig. The name of Vice-
Commodore Clarence A. Postley was mentioned, and Commodore H. M. Gillig was using the name of
a third-term commodore, yet if Mr. Gillig desired a re-election no one questions his popularity sufficiently to preclude his defeat at the polls. However,
he has made up his mind, and that ends the discussion. The members were at a loss even to guess
at the possibilities of the coming canvass for a successor to Commodore Gillig. The name of Vice-
Commodore Clarence A. Postley was mentioned, and Commodore H. M. Gillig was using the name of
a third-term commodore, yet if Mr. Gillig desired a re-election no one questions his popularity sufficiently to preclude his defeat at the polls. However,
he has made up his mind, and that ends the discussion. The members were at a loss even to guess
at the possibilities of the coming canvass for a successor to Commodore Gillig. The name of Vice-
Commodore Clarence A. Postley was mentioned, and Commodore H. M. Gillig was using the name of
a third-term commodore, yet if Mr. Gillig desired a re-election no one questions his popularity sufficiently to preclude his defeat at the polls. However,
he has made up his mind, and that ends the discussion. The members were at a loss even to guess
at the possibilities of the coming canvass for a successor to Commodore Gillig. The name of Vice-
Commodore Clarence A. Postley was mentioned, and Commodore H. M. Gillig was using the name of
a third-term commodore, yet if Mr. Gillig desired a re-election no one questions his popularity sufficiently to preclude his defeat at the polls. However,
he has made up his mind, and that ends the discussion. The members were at a loss even to guess
at the possibilities of the coming canvass for a successor to Commodore Gillig. The name of Vice-
Commodore Clarence A. Postley was mentioned, and Commodore H. M. Gillig was using the name of
a third-term commodore, yet if Mr. Gillig desired a re-election no one questions his popularity sufficiently to preclude his defeat at the polls. However,
he has made up his mind, and that ends the discussion. The members were at a loss even to guess
at the possibilities of the coming canvass for a successor to Commodore Gillig. The name of Vice-
Commodore Clarence A. Postley was mentioned, and Commodore H. M. Gillig was using the name of
a third-term commodore, yet if Mr. Gillig desired a re-election no one questions his popularity sufficiently to preclude his defeat at the polls. However,
he has made up his mind, and that ends the discussion. The members were at a loss even to guess
at the possibilities of the coming canvass for a successor to Commodore Gillig. The name of Vice-
Commodore Clarence A. Postley was mentioned, and Commodore H. M. Gillig was using the name of
a third-term commodore, yet if Mr. Gillig desired a re-election no one questions his popularity sufficiently to preclude his defeat at the polls. However,
he has made up his mind, and that ends the discussion. The members were at a loss even to guess
at the possibilities of the coming canvass for a successor to Commodore Gillig. The name of Vice-
Commodore Clarence A. Postley was mentioned, and Commodore H. M. Gillig was using the name of
a third-term commodore, yet if Mr. Gillig desired a re-election no one questions his popularity sufficiently to preclude his defeat at the polls. However,
he has made up his mind, and that ends the discussion. The members were at a loss even to guess
at the possibilities of the coming canvass for a successor to Commodore Gillig. The name of Vice-
Commodore Clarence A. Postley was mentioned, and Commodore H. M. Gillig was using the name of
a third-term commodore, yet if Mr. Gillig desired a re-election no one questions his popularity sufficiently to preclude his defeat at the polls. However,
he has made up his mind, and that ends the discussion. The members were at a loss even to guess
at the possibilities of the coming canvass for a successor to Commodore Gillig. The name of Vice-
Commodore Clarence A. Postley was mentioned, and Commodore H. M. Gillig was using the name of
a third-term commodore, yet if Mr. Gillig desired a re-election no one questions his popularity sufficiently to preclude his defeat at the polls. However,
he has made up his mind, and that ends the discussion. The members were at a loss even to guess
at the possibilities of the coming canvass for a successor to Commodore Gillig. The name of Vice-
Commodore Clarence A. Postley was mentioned, and Commodore H. M. Gillig was using the name of
a third-term commodore, yet if Mr. Gillig desired a re-election no one questions his popularity sufficiently